

Privacy Notice – Pupils & Families

The Good Shepherd Trust (09341374) is the data controller under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the use of personal data explained in this notice.

Personal data is any information that can be used to identify a living person, either on its own, or in combination with other pieces of data. Data processing includes the collection, use, and storage of data.

Categories of data

The categories of pupil related information that we process include:

- Personal identifiers like name, address, unique pupil number and contact details.
- Characteristics like ethnicity, language, free school meal and pupil premium eligibility
- Image and voice recordings for assessment, celebration and in CCTV for safety and security reasons
- Safeguarding information like court orders and the involvement of other professionals
- Special educational needs including the needs and ranking.
- Medical information like doctors' details, child health, dental health, allergies, medicines and dietary requirements
- Financial information like bank details and entitlement to meals, transport and premium funding to manage catering, school trips etc.
- Attendance e.g., sessions attended, absence, absence reasons, previous schools attended.
- Assessment and attainment like Key Stage 1/Key Stage 2 and phonics results
- Behaviour information like behaviour management plans, exclusions and alternative provision

This list is not exhaustive. For more information about how we process data please refer to our Data Protection policy.

Why?

Why we collect and use this information:

The personal data we collect is essential for Good Shepherd Trust schools to fulfill official functions and meet legal requirements.

We use the information to:

- a) Support learning.
- b) Monitor and report on pupil attainment progress.
- c) Provide appropriate pastoral care.
- d) Assess the quality of what we do.
- e) Keep children safe e.g., food allergies, emergency contact details, CCTV.
- f) Meet statutory duties placed on us by the Department for Education, UK Health Security Agency etc.
- g) Celebrate or promote our schools and wider Trust, for scientific interest, or to record our own history.
- h) To control access to services

Under UK GDPR, the lawful bases we rely on for processing personal information about pupils are:

- To perform a public task i.e., to provide education (mainly reasons a, b, c and d, above)
- To protect vital interests (and sometimes carry out a contract too) e.g., to provide safe meals, trips, transport, uniform, childcare (mainly reasons a and e, above)

- To comply with the law (mainly reasons b and f, above)
- Having consent (mainly reason g, above, and to process ethnicity data) e.g., use images or name publicly.

When we process special category data like medical information, we need to have one lawful basis from the list above and one of the following list:

- To prevent medical problems, assess needs, and provide services (mainly reasons e and f, above) e.g., EHCO plans, records of medicine administration.
- To improve public health e.g., report notifiable diseases appropriately.
- To make or defend legal claims e.g., some special educational needs and all accident records.
- Having consent (mainly reason h, above)

Collecting pupil data

We collect relevant pupil information via data capture forms at the start of each academic year or a secure file sent to us when a child joins from another school.

Most of the pupil information we ask for is required by law or necessary so we can provide a good education, some of it is voluntary. To comply with data protection legislation, if you have a choice about providing information, we will tell you when we ask for it. We will also tell you what to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Sharing pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

The laws listed in this notice that require us to collect information also require us to share it. Data is transferred securely by hand delivery or registered post, via a government data transfer system (like School to School), via a contractor's secure data sharing system like our online school trips safety system, and sometimes in other secure ways.

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Other parts of the Good Shepherd Trust, to monitor the quality of our provision, benchmark, and to make decisions about policy, practice and funding.
- Schools and other education providers pupils go to after leaving us to support their continuing education
- Child development and protection partners: Local Authority children's services, Public Health, Inclusion and Social Care etc. to check attendance, monitor and protect children, the NHS for medical referrals and support, private companies offering counselling and other family or support services
- The DfE to help decide our school funding, monitor attainment and benchmark nationally, compile league tables, develop national education policy and monitor it.
- Our Local Authorities to ensure they can conduct their statutory duties such as under the Schools Admission Code, including conducting Fair Access Panels, and careers guidance legislation.
- Medical services like therapists, the school nurse, or the NHS for things like screening, vaccinations, health/eye/dental checks, Educational Health and Care Plan (EHCP) provision etc. and the UK Health Security Agency about certain contagious infections our pupils may encounter.
- Government departments like the UK Health Security Agency, local authorities' public health, Environmental Health Departments to comply with the law and support public health action
- Voluntary and charitable organisations (with your permission only), such as Barnardo's and similar organisations who offer families practical help and support.

Sharing with the Department for Education (DfE)

We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE directly or via the relevant local authority for the purpose of statutory data collections, under the following legislation:

- Section 29(3) and section 537A of the Education Act 1996
- The Education (School Performance Information) (England) Regulations 2007
- Regulations 5 and 8 of the School Information (England) Regulations 2008
- The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006
- Section 83 of the Children Act 1989 (for monitoring and research purposes)
- For census purposes under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

All data is transferred securely and held by the DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework. For more information, please see the section on 'How Government uses your data' below.

Requesting access to your personal data

Your Rights

Data protection legislation gives parents, carers and pupils the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information or be given access to your child's education record use the contact details given in the box.

Depending on which lawful basis was used to process the data (above), you may also have the right to:

- Ask for access to information about you that we hold
- Have your personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing
- Restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e., permitting its storage but no further processing)
- Object to direct marketing (including profiling) and processing for the purposes of scient/historical research and statistics
- Be subject to decisions based purely on automated processing where it produces a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by the DfE, please see the sections below.

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind or are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting us:

To discuss anything in this privacy notice, please contact our Data Protection Officer:

How Government uses your data

The pupil data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- underpins school funding, which is calculated based upon the numbers of children and their characteristics in each school.
- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE (for example; via the school census) go to www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

Much of the data about pupils in England is held in the National Pupil Database (NPD).

The NPD is owned and managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department.

It is held electronically for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

To find out more about the NPD, visit gov.uk

Sharing by the DfE

The law allows the DfE to share pupils' personal data with certain third parties, including:

- schools and local authorities
- researchers
- organisations connected with promoting the education or wellbeing of children in England
- other government departments and agencies
- organisations fighting or identifying crime

For more information about the DfE's NPD data sharing process, please visit: gov.uk

Organisations fighting or identifying crime may use their legal powers to contact DfE to request access to individual level information relevant to detecting that crime. Whilst numbers fluctuate slightly over time, DfE typically supplies data on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and roughly 1 per year to the Police.

For information about which organisations the DfE has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the gov.uk website.

Finding out what information the DfE holds

How to find out what personal information the DfE holds about you.

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the DfE:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they are holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the DfE, please make a 'Subject Access Request' to them. Find out how in the DfE's personal information charter published at gov.uk.

To contact the DfE go to: www.gov.uk/contact-dfe.
